

Grammar: Verb-subject agreement worksheet 1

i Verbs and subjects must agree!

Choose the right verb form in each of these sentences, so that each verb agrees with its subject.

1. So many people is/are waiting outside.
2. The office next door was/were closed all day yesterday.
3. The print on the labels is/are so small.
4. The carpet has/have so many stains on it that it needs/need to be replaced.
5. The Trade Union members' meeting is/are downstairs in the Conference Room.
6. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor has/have moved in next door to us.
7. Two cars and a coach was/were involved in the motorway accident.
8. His application form for the new job, which was/were posted yesterday, has/have gone missing.
9. My neighbour play/plays his music so loud that the walls almost vibrate/vibrates.
10. Ricardo do/does not care whether United or City is/are winning.
11. The bouquet of flowers has/have just arrived.
12. He makes/make use of the computer now, and even writes/write reports for the manager with it.