

Grammar: Verb-subject agreement worksheet 4

i Change the nouns and verbs in these sentences from singular to plural.

e.g. The street is very crowded (singular noun and verb)

The streets are very crowded (plural noun and verb)

1. The computer in the office upstairs has crashed.
2. The college student does some evening work in the restaurant.
3. The car was parked along the edge of the road.
4. Our neighbour is always so friendly and helpful.
5. The mechanic does a full service on all cars.
6. No sound was heard from behind the closed door.
7. The flat was built ten years ago.
8. The car goes better on unleaded fuel.
9. The shop makes a huge profit from the sale of those products.
10. The new carpet goes really well with the colour scheme in the house.